The World's Situation Day is Thursday.

THE WORLD: TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 6, 1893.

THE WORLD: TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 6, 1893.

Thursday Rely wasted and the was a added by Emma received the proper statistic statistics of the property of the handled hatchet was 3 1-2 inches; the instrument which files into the deathwards of Andrew J. Borden was just strument which files into the deathwards of Andrew J. Borden was just sorrow.

3 1-2 inches; the instrument which files into the deathwards of Andrew J. Borden was just sorrow.

4 the close of Mr. Moody's address sorrow.

5 will be proved, was also locked on that door, is will be proved, was also locked on the court adjourned until to-morrow to permit of the visit. The prisoner residued hatchet was 3 1-2 inches; the instrument which files into the deathwards of Andrew J. Borden was just sorrow.

8 Beyond, on a miserable little deal table, lies the body of a baby girl. It was and the court adjourned until to-morrow a chubby baby, with a dimple in its iny lingers—as sweet a baby as ever was mourned by an agonized and complete. From Mrs. Borden's room a door leads to the entryway into the kitchen, and that door. It will be proved, was also locked on that day. As you go up the hallway you	At the close of Mr. Moody's address arrangements were made for the jury to visit the Borden house at Fall River, and the court adjourned until to-morrow to permit of the visit. The prisoner re-	sorrow. Beyond, on a miserable little deal ta- ble, lies the body of a baby girl. It was a chubby baby, with a dimple in its chin and a dimple to mark each knuckle in its finy lingers—as sweet a baby as	The schedule of Erastus Wiman's Habilities has been flied with the Clerk of Richmond County, S. I.	The lawyer made a statement to Justice Grady, and the witness, who is one of the hostiers who pulled Ellison away from Mr. Henriques's prostrate body, made an affidavit,	asmuch as he had not proven that Sag- had removed him from a place of safety	treated upon their first visit free of all charge. In addition to this, thorough consultation and a lvice will be given to all who apply, without a point to no access to but four rooms, and there was no access to the rear of the house. In the lower part, as you enter the hallway below,	President Claveland's Views Have a	ever was mourned by an agonized mothre in Fifth avenue, fair haired and sunny faced. That was what representatives of "The Evening World" found in the house of Christian and Carolina Bauer at 116 Grand street, Hoboken, yester-	The direct liabilities are stated at $591,000, which includes an indebtedness to R. G. Dun of $315,000; H. S. Archer, $50,000; Chemical National Bank, $60,000; Central National Bank, $10,000, and Ladenburg, Thallman &	A member of the Henriques family told an	his injuries were caused by the shool of the explosion, and would have re- sulted independently of Mr. Sage's ac-	DOCTORS M'COY AND SNOW.

now you to come to a difference of construc- tion. Turning to the left from the sitting- room you enter the dining-room on the north, and it is directly under Emma's room,	WALL, STREET, Tuesday, June 6.— The publication of President Cleveland's views on the financial situation and the knowledge that an extra session of Con-	day. The air outside was still and hot and sultry. In this rear tenement, screened on all sides by tall buildings, the hives of the busy human bees who make	by collateral. The contingent liabilities are $315,000, which includes an indersation for the Elec-	Mr. Henriques had been unconscious most of the night, and that although apparently hav- ing regained the faculty of comprehension was unable to more without extreme pain or	was resumed this morning. At the opening of court Coi. E. C. James, counsel fo Mr. Sage, moved that the testimon, of Dr. Whitney, Laidlaw's physician, b	City. If you have at a distance write for a Symptom Plants, Address all letters to 5 Kant 420 streets, Office bours—9 to 11 A. M., 2 to 4 P. M., 6 to 2 P. M. daily. Suedays, 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.
into the kitchen. Above that the arrangement is varied by a partition so that the door corresponding to the dining-room door from the sitting-room is that leading from Emma s from to the prizoner's.	gress will be called before Sept. 1 if deemed necessary, had a reassuring effect in financial circles this morning. The declarations just made by the President are well calculated to hearing	ter, and the atmosphere seemed almost thick. And Baby Carolina, having given up life's struggle after seven months in this world, lay there, waiting for some one to come forward and rescue its	$100,000 on individual bonds to secure mort- gages on real estate transferred some time ago to David Bennett King, assignee, as trustee for the greaters.	Henriques's wounds last night, called again at the Henriques residence this morning and made examination of the left eye, into which	Ex-Judge Noan Davis opposed the motion and the Court reserved decision until later in	· PRIZES FUR THUKUUGHBKEUS,	FLETCHER WATCH & JEWELRY CO., cupled the house that night, and we will just go to the front part of the house. The prisoner came in last that night and fastened the front door, upon which	confidence both at home and abroad, as they strengthen the belief in the ulti- mate repeal of the obnoxious Sherman Sliver law. London was a buyer of stocks gen-	Potter's Field. Sympathetic neighbors huddled in the little parlor and about the door, but they were as poor as the Bauers and could extend no beining band.	realized upon it is expected will largely reduce the direct indebedness and enable this with the security already is hand, to	while his aged victim lay motionless on the pavement. "It is probable," Dr. Webster told the anxious members of the family, "that the	Henry F. Languart, connectinal cierk to Bloodgood & Co. and a member of the Stoci Exchange, who has known Laidlaw for seven teen or eighteen years, said that previous to the dynamite affair of Dec. 4, 1891, Laidlaw was a strong, healthy athletic man.	Manhattan Field.	182 Broadway, Elevator on John 66, "Downtown Corners" door had been closed since Tuesday, and by complete evidence this will pe proved. Bridget came in at the back door and went to bed upstairs, and when these wo- men came in and went to bed every ex- serior approach was closed.	erally, Sugar rose 1 3-8, to 88 3-8; Rock Island 1, to 73; Lackawanna 5-8, to 140; Lake Shore 1 3-4, to 12; 1-2; Louisville & Nashville 1 3-8, to 65 3-8; Missouri Pacific 1, to 36 1-4; New York Central 1, to 102 1-8, and Western Union 1 5-8, to 83 5-8.	eyed lais, stood by the table and gazed first at their baby sister lying so still there, with a dainty sweet violet in her marble hand, and then at their par- ents wonderingly.	stated to be neminally worth 1900,000, but as the amount turned over does not include	without delay, as he may become delirious at any moment." Dr. Wyncop, the family physician, was at once sent for. Dr. Wyncop called at 12.20 and remained	boring drug store shortly after the accident Mr. Sage was very much excited, insomuci that an attending physician said: "Ar. Sage, keep quiet. You are not in the least burt."	Charles F. Bates Won the Tally Ho	, -
The prisoner slept in her own room that night and Morse in the guest cham- ber. Mr. and Mrs. Borden slept in their room over the kitchen and Bridget Bullivan slept in her room above, in the third story. In the morning Bridget	Brown Bros. have reduced the rate for demand sterling to 4.90. Sixty days remain 4.87 1-2. The market was extremely dull this afternoon, and lower prices prevailed, chiefly in consequence of the advance in	Nickie was only four. The father, Christian Bauer, said in a hopeless, despairing way: "Gentleman I have been too much	$25,000, and the bold required of the as- signee was therefore only $50,000. The assignee estimates the real estate in his possession as sufficient to may the direct	riques' skull was not actually fractured, but that the bone was bally truised and concus- sion of the brain might result. The doctor advised the nurse in attendance	The witness saw that Mr. Sages lice was slightly burned, but otherwise he appeare uninjured. Laidiaw, however, was covered with blood. He got a carriage and was about to tak Laidiaw home, but concluded to send him to	MANHATTAN FIELD, June 6.—Under the skillful manipulation of the small army o attendants the field and track were in perfect on the proof that the only human be- ings in the house that night were those we have mentioned. Bridget got her fuel downstairs and built a first got the milk at the rear	the rates for call loans, and the heavy out-of-town demands upon the NewYork banks for currency. Governments were heavy. Registered 4s fell off to 110 1-2 a 111 1-8, coupon do.	I have seen only bad luck. For five years in America I have worked only for the doctor and the undertaker In five years I have lost five children	inay be found to exist after rashization upon the assets which these represent-	this afternoon with her lawyer, A. H. Hum- mel, and had an interview with supt. Byrnes. The latter, after their departure, admitted that they had been to see him, but rejused to	Laidiaw had been a physical wreck, and we able to prosecute business in the office. In stead of a strong, athletic man, he had be	 Show of the United States Horse and Cattle Show Society. In the face of the sweltering weather, it cannot be 8-40 that there was a crowd or 	FLINI'S FINE FURNITURE.
tin. There was a screen door here, and this it was which Bridget locked after the foot the milk. Liszle came down, then Mrs. Borden and then Mr. Borden,	Hankers report a heavy demand for money from Chicago, Milwaukee, Cin- cinnati, and other western points, and Washington. One banker states that he has personal knowledge of $1,500,000 of currency shipped to-day. No one bank	"I can do no nore. I have been re longshoreman, but for seven month I have had little work, till two weeks ago I got a steady job at the freigh for the United States Express Com	Welcomed by Cheering Thousands to the World's Fair City.	front of 31 East Thirty-ninth street. Mr.	accident House Eurgeon at St. Vincenty- Hospital testified to fadian's injuries. If found wounds nil ever him. On his scalp legs, arms and back there were wounds an burns combined, and very paintyl.	Society preferred to wait until late in the afternoon, when the sun had los some of its melting power. The form on, before the j dring began was enlivened by the exercising of som	A rare display of elegant parlor suits in elegant coverings. Among these are some twenty patter only at breakfast with the others. After breakfast the first one to depart was Morse, at 7.45, and Mr. Borden let him out and locked the screen door behind him. Soon after Morse went	is forwarding large amounts, but the demand is general. The city banks to- day withdrew $1,000,000 in notes of small denominations from the Sub- Trensury for shipment to the West by express. This led to increased exists.	pay my 34.50 a month rent; I must have food for my family. "Gentleman, I have not one dollar to pay the undertaker. Others must lay my little one away."	ctificAGO, June 6.—The World's Fair City welcomed the Infanta of Spain just after noon to-day. Thousands of cheer- ing people lined the sidewalks particu-	lis's stable, opposite the Union League Club. Returning through Thirty-ninth street, he had just reached No. 31, when Ellison walked up to him and shouted:	two and a half inches deep, extending inward and upward. Another wound had penetrated an artery, which cled very treely. From at least eight wounds Dr. O'shea had extracted foreign substances, such a	stretch of green turf. Several ladies braved the scorching sun and put their saddle horses through their paces for at hour or more. Noticeable among the fair equestrienne.	ceedingly tasty, so very novel and e egant, that' prices, seemingly, do not represent one-four their value. Also, an interesting show of no ber breakfast. While she was cating Mr. Borden went upstairs, and Bridget went out in the yard, because she was sick. When she came back Mr. Borden had evidently gone downtown. Mrs.	to 6 per cent. The tone of the sterling exchange market is easier. The demand is limited and the sterling exchange market is easier.	row of this father and mother easier or harder to bear? Then the mother, not more than thir- ty years old, said:	Board of Trade, as the carriages con- taining the royal party passed rapidly along to the hotel, preceded by the cav- alry escort	you a few things." Ellison then struck him in the face re- peatedly, and finally knocked him down. Mr. Henriques said he had been trying to defend himself and at 'he same time	canvas, which had penetrated two nones into the fless. In Dr. O'Shear' opinion, Laidlaw sustained an injury to his anxie which would be permanent. Dr. James Lefferts Cornell, of Brooklyn	Higgins's big bay gelding Lauderdale Miss Bench excited the admiration of the Knowing ones who had come early	DINING-ROOM FURNITUR washing windows, and the latter was	than usual. Bankers' 60-day bills sold	doctor, a good man, had tended her and	The Princess smiligly bowed her acknowledgment of the continuous vol- ley of applause that swept along the thoroughfares. The special train bearing the Princess made a good run through the night from Pittsburg to Chicago. Eulalia region of chocolate in her private room at the private	his him-number. As he foll he succeeded	of the explosion and first diessed their	gan to increase. They were drawn thither by the announcement on the pro- gramme of the four-in-hand race from the Hotel Waldorf to Manhattan Field There were four entries for the race-	colonial, &c. The best quality leather-covered or ing chairs from $3.75 upward; fine pillar extens tables, side tables, china and silver close her room alive again, for no living person haw her alive again, except the assassin.	The sales of stocks were 206,600 shares. In the unlisted department 11,000 shares of Sugar and 700 Lead were traded in.	get more fresher air. We sat there or a beach a long time, baby sleeping or my lap.	until 10 o'clock. The Prince, the Duke and the March-	Although a large crowd had gathered, nobody seemed disposed to interfere until a coachman who knew Mr. Hen-	Col. James in cross-examination. "No. sir; they were all of a posterior nature."	Richard F. Carmen and Charles F Bates. These gentlemen whips were billed to drive their own coaches, which were to carry not less than seven passengers. The route of the procession was	"BUY OF THE MAKER."
the prisoner there, and asked her not to lock the door, as she wanted to come in and get water but she said after- wards that she might lock it if she	the common of 3 per cent. Transfer-	her little arms and legs drew up and I knew she was in a fit. Before I could do anything my baby was dead." Not a very long story; it was told simply. When the mother said that	and all said that their first night's ex- perience on an American railway train was a surprise to them. At II o'clock breakfast was served in the Frincess's car. The members of the	After Mr. Henriques's wounds were dressed he was driven, with his physi- sian, to the West Thirtieth street police station, where he made a complaint	all." William Oliver Moore, an eye and ca specialist, or 85 Madison avenue, who has treated Laidlaw, testified that his condition had grown worse instead of better.	Hundred and Tenth street gate up the Bouleyard to One Hundred and Fifty fourth street, thence to the grounds the first coach to arrive to get a silve punch bowl offered by the Waldorf man agement; the condition of the horses a	104, 106 and 108 West 14th 8 DUNCAN GILMOUR & CO.
wished and ane would get water from the barn. The door was left unlocked and the prisoner went into the house. In washing these windows, there were two atting-room windows, which were washed first then Eridget came to the	books close on June 12 at 3 P. M., and will respen July 5. Harfing, Magoun & Co. expect to ship 2300,009 gold on the Columbia, sailing on Thursday.	new word "scruge" she clinched her hangs and contorted her face to indi- cate what she meant. They don't learn much of American ways, this class, but one of the first	car. A delegation of Chicago citizens, headed by ex-Mayor Washburne and Hobart Chatfield Taylor, Spanish Consul at Chicago, met the train at Grand Crossing at 11.45 and entered the slean	Capt. O'Connor told Mr. Henriques he would have Ellison arrested if he could be found, but that Mr. Henriques had better go to Jefferson Market Court this morning and secure a warrant. The assault mon Mr. Henriques is	manent. M. Laidiaw, recalled by Col. James, said	the end of the race to be considered by the judges in making the award. The judging to-day commenced at 11.3 with theroughed stallions, backness bro d mares, backeys makes and hickness yearings, all shown in hand.	BITTER ALE.
front of the house and then to the north side and washed the parlor and dining-room windows. She saw neither Mrs. Borden nor the prisoner during all the time she was washing those windows. When she finished, she came in, locked the door, and	"Core directors will declare the " rec-	is usually the proper place to which to appeal. So Mrs. Bauer went to the office of Chief of Police Charles Donohue. Sergt John Stanton and behind the desk when	Ing-car Scotland, Commander Dayls pre- sented them to the Duke and Secretary Don Fedo y Jover. The train arrived at Union Station at 12.08.	which have been made against Ellison. He is known to almost all the frequent- ers of the uptown resorts and in Wall street. Unit expelled as a result of a fight	where his left thigh struck a table as he fell at Mr. Choate's request, Mr. Laidiav showed the jury half a dozen scars on the call of his left leg. The plaintiff then rested Col. James moved for a dismissal of the	It was just 2.50 o'clock when the tara-ra of a tally-ho horn apprised the waiting crowd that the first coach in the four-in-hand race was reaching the goal. A moment later the gates of the Gae Hundred and Fifty-fifth stree	Brewed in England from the finest Kentish he began washing the inner side of the win- dows. She had begun her work there when somebody was heard at the front door. Let us find out what time this	American Tob	she entered, and, extending her arms over the fron railing towards him, held out what seemed to him to be a sleep- ing babe, a pretty child, its round face haloed in soft, yellow, silken hair. "See, policeman! My baby is dead,"	She Was the Brooklyn Society Girl Who Killed Herself.	he was a member of the Union Club. He was suspended from the Manhattan Club for fighting, and was only saved from expulsion by the influence of his friends. The man he assaulted in the Manhattan club, house, died shout three	the piaintiff had proven only that his lojurie were due to the criminal act of Dynamite Norcross, and that the defendant was not a	side of the field were thrown open and Charles F. Bates's blue and yellow coach dashed through. Fiv. minutes later Barclay H. War- burte entered the grounds with his	was drank, and NOT A HEAD- ACHE in a HOOSHEAD of it!" WM. SIMPSON, 43d st. and 6th av
At 10.25 Mr. Borden was at the store of Mr. Clegg, who fixes the exact time. He left, at 10.40, another store for his home, but a short distance away. Mrs. Kelly saw him coming from the screen	Halt A Ohio	she exclaimed. The sergeant started, but it is hard to startle a policeman. They are accustomed to all manner of misery, and	t Koop, the Brooklyn society girl, who	Last year Ellison attacked Hugh Slevin at Madison avenue and Twenty-sixth street, and was fined $250 for the assault by Recorder Smyth.	tic, Norcross, unless, perhaps, the defendant had given him $1.200,000 on the spat. for my learned triends have not yet claimed that the defendant owed it to Laidlaw to pay the amount to prevent the calamity."	The prize was given to Mr. Bates who, although his horses showed signs of hard usage, won by reason of his advantage in the actual time consumed	All Grocers and Wine and Liquor Deals HELP WANTED-MALE.
get in, and taking out his latchkey to use at the front door. When he came home Bridget found the front door locked and bolted, con- trary to custom in that house. He had	Chic., MH, & St., Paul. 0-14 (88) 6 (18 6784 (18 6884 (18	dead. Then he sent one policeman home with Mrs. Bauer, the officer carrying the dead child. Another policeman notifies	e In her will Miss Koop left all her d property to her brother, Herman H. Koop, Jr., and her two sisters, Mrs. Fisk and Mrs. William S. Brown, were	Lewis Stow were arrested in Martin's restaurant for creating a listurbance. Two other scrimmages, in which Ellison took part, occurred respectively in his bachelor apartments in Seventeenth street and in front of the Hotel Bruns.	not shown that there had been any threa- made by Norcress or that Mr. sage feared he was in any danger at the time of the explo- sion, and Mr. Choate promptly interrupted him to but in evidence Mr. Sage's testimon	The four tally-hos left the Waldori at 2.18. Mr. Bates held the lead all the way after striking the Boulevard. The awards follow: Class 1-410450 tournighbret stallions; three prizes 2000, 200, 500, First, W. A. Walson	MM ANTED Marker and sorter on collars of outs; first-class man only, Gardner & V and boked. He came in and made some	Delaware & Hudson, 121 121 121 121	bailiwick, and Poormaster Andrew Miller got word that the family were entirely without means wherewith to bury their babe. The County Physician issued a certificate, "died of convulsions," and	It is claimed by the contestants that Miss Koop was insane when she made the will. She had been confined in sev- eral institutions for the insane, and	stance he attacked a man with a poker; in the other he beat a man by mistake, taking him for some one else.	Col. James offered Mr. Sage as, a witness but Mr. Choate declined the courtesy unies Col. James would call him. Col. James then objected to the admission of the deposition, but it was admitted, an	Class 10—Hackney brood uares, three years ofto or over and above 15 haods, certried to be in foa or with iteal at four, three prizes, $150, $20, $25, Hist, George Green's imp. May thing in second, A J. Classatts Lady Drewton; thi d. Cheater Spring	the right person good steady situation; must h
The prisoner then came to him, asking him for mail, and said, "Mrs. Borden is gone out; she had a note, and has gone in answer to it." That was a lie to stille inquiry. As Bridget was washing the windows	Description 1984	baby was in the hands of the City of Hoboken. In the meantime word came to "The Evening World," and its representative hastened yesterday morning to this hum ble house of mourning.	cide before she was successful. The trial to test the legality of the will is set down for June 19, before Sur- rogate Abbott. At the time of her death Miss Koop was said to be worth about	brother-in-law of Samuel A. Walsh, a broker, who lives at 31 West Thirty- ninth street.	According to toll James's views there we nothing in the evidence to show that Mr Sage's taking Laidiaw by the hand and hi consequent shi ting of position just before	S. Class 27—24 mass - ass 26, but must be above 1; and not over 15 hands; three prizes, $150, $50, $.5. First, George Green's lmp. Hedon Empress. Only one entry.	HELP WANTED—FEMALE. WANTED—Good operators. Gale Gaylard, 1 5th are. BILK W. AVERS WANTED. John N. Steal again, the prisoner got an froning beard and went to work, and then she told Bridget the falsehood about the note; she told her to be careful about the doors, as she might go out. Bridget did her work and was about to go upstairs.	Louistile & Nasn	This had been a case of infantile suf- fering of exactly the sort for the relie of which "The Evening World" Sich Bables' Fund was instituted, and "The Evening World" Corps of Free Phy- sicians for the poor organized to look	DRANK OXALIC ACID.	her husband, Ellison being one of her witnesses. Mr. Henriques closed his doors to El- lison, who finally made himself so ob-	Choate to smile gently and blandly. Ex-Judge Noah Davis opposed col. James' motion to non-suit at considerable length	Class 30 - Mares, three years old or over, not ex	First, George Green's Flaur de Lis; second, J. Widener's Her Majesty H.; third, A. J. Cassal Parti.
when the prisoner said: "There's a cheap sale of goods downtown, where they are selling goods at eight cents a	Mo. Kap & Ten pf. 21 21 21 22 22 22 23 24 24 24 24 24 24 24 24 24 24 24 24 24	after. Had this baby had constant at tention its life right have been saved but its parents were too poor to provide such attention. Information came too late in this case Baby was dead. All that was left to be	Kirwen Burke, twenty-six years'old, a driver, living at 407 West Fifty-first street, attempted suicide this morning	Sunt, Byrnes. The Superintendent sent for Ellison and gave him a warning. There were wild rumers that a duel between Ellison and the rumers will be tween the control beautiques would remove the control of the contro	the bomb-throwing and ably resided the ide- that sage had acced in an entirely unsenta- not to speak of Col. James's suggestion of beneficiary motive. He insisted that Sage's laving of hand		Class 32—Yearling cults or fillies foaled in 18; three prices, $80, $40, $20, First, J. E. Wider's Danegelt II.; second. A. J. Cassatt's Marquot britz price awarded. Class 116.—Judging hait-bred hackness in heas price $100 in money or justs. First, W. H. Martin's America. Confidence. Class 4.—Stallnos, marse or goldings over 1.
was nothing more until the alarm came at 11.15. It could not have been far from 18.45 when Mr. Borden reached home. The prisoner was the last person left with	N. Y. & New ingrand. 2 % 9 % 27 22 22 No. 1 % 1 % 1 % 1 % 1 % 1 % 1 % 1 % 1 % 1	done was to give Taby Carolina a decemberial, and that was the mission of "The Evening World" representative in Hoboken. "It hurts me here," said the hungry eyed father of the babe, putting a	to by swallowing exalle acid. He was e out of work, and had been on a pro- tracted spree. The poison burned his mouth so badly that he did not swallow any of it. He was arrested and taken to Norkelle.	from Ellison that Henriques was try- ing to ruln him. Ellison's conduct was freely criticised at the time. He claimed to have let-	was unlawful and entitled Lathaw to dam ages for the injuries he received in conse- quence. He argued that Sace undoubledly acte- from rear, in full knowledge that Norcros		and not exceeding 15 hands three prises. $40, $20, First, A. J. Canapit's Duka: secon W. R. H. Martin's American tendidence; the Chares S. Phillip's Gisuous. Very highly comended, Prescott Lawrence's Princeses. Class 26—Stations, two rears old, foliad in 18 three prizes, $100, $40, $23, First, Gen Green's imp, Creen's huma: second, A. J. Satt's Midney, third, John V. Hecker's imp, S.
the back yard when she heard a grean, and went in and found her father dead. She sem Bridget for Dr. Rowen, and, faling to get him, sent for Miss Russe'l, and it must be borne in mind that this was the woman to whom Lizzle had pre-	Outside West 1 to 1	saunt hand on his breast, "It hurts me here to see my little one buried in the poor-ground. I cannot bear it." "Two of our little ones died in Hobo ken and are buried in a grave in Flowe.	Court.	Neames, which he threatened to pub- lish. Mrs. Neames declared that if Elli- son really had such letters they were forgeries.	Justice Andrews Intercupted Judge Davi- to state that, in his opinion, there was need of no argument except on this question:		Stock Farm's imp. bleatricity. Cas 27- Best registered hackney brood mathresses of o over, 15 hanus or over; printled in the property of the dicted disaster only the right before. Mrs. Churchill came only by accident. Bridget a-ked: "Shall I not go down for Mrs. Borden?" "No." said the pris- oner; "I am not sure, but I think I heard her come in; I wish you would	The Addition of the state of th	Hill Cemetery, said the mother. "Oh if Carolina could only go there too hut what can the poor do? Undertaken must have their money." The visitors brought a peculiar comfort to the parents when they told them that they had come to see that the		Dismissed on the Charge of Stealing $100 from Legis Gordon.	ceived his injuries in consequence or greater injuries than he would have received had he remained in his original position; "While I do not remember ever to have heard of a similar case," observed the cour- withat does not live! prove that the paintif		May Uncen accord, George Green's Farest One- third, Chestaut Hill stock Pares's Ulrica; Y. C., A. J. Cassatt's Lady Drawton. Close Sp.—P. nies in harness, stallions, mares gaidings, not exceeding 12 hands, to be shown appropriate carriages; three prizes, 800, 225 a 810. First, useorge Green's Lightfoot, saco- George Green's Jennie; third, Mins E. E. Widese
the dead body was seen on the floor in the guest-chamber. The prisoner went to her own room without once going to	Washan pre 10 to 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10	cherry stained coffin, lines with white	9	Leah King a meral or of the Silver Bell Quartet, which ran been playing at Proctor's awenty-third Street Theatre, was arraiged in Jefferson Market Court this morning.	Judge Davis said he would argue the question suggested after recess, which was the taken. During the recess many of the speciator.	James A.	Class 91 - Best thoroughbred stallion for sets hunters: must have size and substance; to shown in hand; prize, $100 in money or plate lirst, W. K. Wadaworth's The Devi. To Pay; H. C., Hemstead Parm's Macbeth.
marger, then he took up the inniter of		in the afternoon for when people are poor it is impossible to preserve the bodies of their friends for any length			cess, Judge Davis held that the nature of Laidlaw's injuries, most of which were	Garfield.	Class 83.—Horses suitable for hunters, for years old or over; up to 220 pounds; cont mailton and soundness to count. 40 per cent performances over lences, 40 per cent; the prizes, $100, $50, $25. Pirs. George Piper's blaze; second. Chestout Hill $8. Parnis Shylock; third, Lue-1 Franck
the clothing produced for inspection as that worn by the prisoner on the day of the murder, on which experts could flad no blood. He said it would appear that soon af- ter the alarm an officer was attracted by Pr. Bowen doing something at the	Adams con of Fra Silver, 15 — Alams con of Fra Silver, 15 —	of lime, for preservatives are expensive, and an early funeral was necessary. At 3 o'clock Rev. J. W. Freund, the same good man who performed the last rites for Wendland and his wife and		Miss King indignantly denied the charge, but admitted that she was in the room at the time charged by Miss Gordon She was discharged for lack of evidence.	Mr. Choate insited that it had been proven conclusively that Sage moved	it is the best substitute for it." If you are not	lilue Hidge. 4 P. M. The heavy thunder shower clear the field, clubing a great scurrying to co- among the girs with breezy costumes, a bringing the programme to a sudden term nation.
appeared to be a large roll of burned paper. The prisoner had a light blue dress, with a small figure, which she was he	Matter 10	little babe when they had been denied the files of the Church by athers because they had become importunate and weary of life and starvation and had ended their sorrows in the North River, read the Episcopalism service for	Will. C. M. LAUER "Nerven hin tered Generally broken down; at times I would fall	Weather Forecast. Lecal forecast for thirty-six bours ending et S.P. M. Wednesday: Showery this evenin;	Laidisw into a place where pieces o splinters, leather and canvas and sh mails entered his body. "For every one of these fragments, continued Mr. Choate. "we are entitled damacs, unless Your Honor holds, a	can obtain power by	FELL DOWN THE ELEVATOR SHA
the habit of wearing; Dr. Howen will may that she had on a chean drab-ed- ored dress that morning. Mrs. Chureaul will say that she had on early a light- blue ground dress, and a diamond ig- ure of navy blue; and the dress with light apots was not the one she had on	K. H. 50 Phornia Is. 63 - Cholar 150	the dead over the little coffin in one of the rooms of the undertaker's place. The father stood with bowel head team streaming from his even. The mother knelt, resting her head on the foot of the tany coffin, her frame shak	f over with a touch of the vertice, was not able to go any distance from the house. I was a m-erable man I got very much disheart- ened. The day I commenced on tothe So. 2 of Peod's parsapari in I becam to feel better and I am shalf to use I now feel blear any man.	ing to northwest winds.	matter of law, that there were other particles of wood and leather and othe shee-nalls which would have entered La 4,aw's body had he been in anothe position.	H-OHornby's	Killed This Afternoon. Jacob Beck, aged fifty-five years, of 4 East Fifty-third street, while employed in the the street of the
when she (Mrs. Churchill) arrived at the house. On Sunday morning Miss Russell went to the house and there saw the prisoner with a skirt on her arm—one which the prisoner had purchased that Spring	Londs	spoke the words of the service. After the services, the family, in a single hark, followed the little coffin to the cometery, and it was lowered into a grave.	Hood's parille Cure	Pharmacy 3 A. M76 6 A. M76 9 A. M 31 12 M 36 Noney for Firemen's Parade. The Board of Aldermen au horized the Fire	Stock Increased to $2,000,000. The directors of the E. W. Bitta Manufacturing Company at a meeting in Brooklyn to	New York Athletics,	Found Dead in His Room.
- Hart Ditta drang an described has blue	Curry 70 - Warders 15 -	Then each person present, even little Tony and Nickle, scattered a handfu of earth on the grave, and all was over "See, here lie our children, Johanna	OGO West Market street, York, 14.	Commissioners to-day to expend $605 for grand stands and music on the day of fire-	day declared to increase the cantral stock tro-	New York Athletic Club. THE H-O COMPANY, NEW YORK.	Rye, N. Y., was found dead in his room the Hotel Elizabeth. 161 Hester street, it afternoon. The gas was turned on police think it was accidents
	And the second second	and the filler than the second the second transfer	The state of the s changed her dress.	3 ne 1013	MITTER .	11 6 + 11	e crossing d	HOLALI	our o

Mr. Moody here dwelt upon the dif-		OCT P. WI	THE	onsonuate	1 Exc	hange ferent stories told by Lizzie as to her	$40-1115-1 errand to the barn at the time of the		1 id. A	shad.		Mild.	Asked writing to the barn at the time of the	American	100000	mpunte.	Homestake.
murder. Then he took up the matter of	1 64	004	.02	Harry diams
the clothing produced for inspection as	A	.50		eren Silver.
that worn by the prisoner on the day of	Adamseon.	- 500	9-	fron Hui.	.10
the murder, on which experts could flud	Arpen of &			hallastin
no blood.	5 Ce.	1.07		a Pemp	-10
He said it would appear that soon of-	Bei bet	1.00	100	I a Craise	63	. 0
ter the alarm an officer was attracted	Atri #	144		Lessif, Com-	14	. 10 by Dr. Bowen doing something at the	Heiginer	13/8		LiftleChiel	-1.9	7 stove, and he looked in and saw what	Lenier	110		Mexica	1.00	+ appeared to be a large roll of burned	Dateplons.	6.3	- 63	houtes the	- 25	3.21
paper.	Bren			Ontario	13,50	101.91
	definite good.		10.5	Liphiz.	1.00	- 6
The prisoner had a light blue dress,	beimint		50	1 Print D. W. M.	1.00	. 618 with a small figure, which she was the	Laterions		7.5	P vinimith	50	1300
the habit of wearing ; Dr. Bowen will	B. H		-	Phornix is	.03 say that she had on a cheap drab-col-	L.Durlak.	$112		1 - 14 - 1 A 44
ored dress that morning. Mrs. Churchill	Addisonate a	11.	Carlo Child	ATTEN will say that she had on early a light-	4 th . 1. Cit.		1.00	3 M 1 MA 44 blue ground dress, and a diamond fig-	A Great Act	0.00		Commence	-	108
ure of navy blue, and the dress with	4 Va	1.50	17	PATAKES	1000 light mote was not the diese will	Countons	0.0		hierra Nor	7.1	2.47 light apots was not the one she had on	liands	11.00		Stermount.		.01 when she (Mrs. Churchill) arrived at the	Serip	19 204	- 5	Tier		.11
house.	Denimon.			Emaderap's	.50
On Sunday morning Miss Russell went	Tetta	190		birter Min.	100	- to the house and there saw the pris-	Eurela Ca	94		1.c. 0:1. Y	- 67 oner with a skirt on her arm-one which	bat er Da			Phornau.	2.717	.01
the prisoner had purchased that Spring.	hmet	16	-	Terra	-	164
a light blue dress, as described by Mrs.	Gouli &			CRIST OF L	124	0.00
Churchill.	Curry.	.70		Wardert	11
she saw the prisoner standing at the	hat & Nor			Xel Jazasi	1.03	0 1 8
has see one bimonet branging at the	#1048	.60	-
The state of the s

The Direct Liabilities Are Said to

Thirty-seventh street and a witness of the William R. Landiaw against Russill, called at the Jefferson Market Police Sage, Justice Andrews granted the mocourt this forenoon.

The lawyer made a statement to Justice

In non-sulting Mr. Laidlaw, the Court

